

Plagiarism Prevention: Selected Web Sites

* From the Camden County College
2005-2006 Student Handbook (p. 19)

"All students are expected to do their own work. All forms of academic dishonesty are absolutely forbidden. Students who cheat, plagiarize or commit other acts of academic dishonesty, will be subject to immediate disciplinary action. This may result in an automatic grade of F for an assignment and/or for the course. Academic dishonesty also may be subject to additional penalties as determined by the college in accordance with sanctions for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. (See page 42.)"

Avoiding Plagiarism

This site, developed by the Purdue University Online Writing Lab, provides a detailed handout for students and includes a practice exercise.

http://owl.english.purdue.edu/handouts/research/r_plagiar.html

Cheating 101: Paper Mills and You

Provides faculty with an overview of Internet Paper Mills: the current state of Internet Paper Mills, locating Paper Mills, detecting plagiarized papers, tracking down suspicious papers, and combating plagiarism.

<http://www.coastal.edu/library/presentations/papermil.html>

CQ Researcher: Combating Plagiarism

This 24-page report from CQ Press and Congressional Quarterly is an excellent overview of the topic and includes a discussion of the pros and cons of using commercial services to combat plagiarism. To read the report online or print it in HTML or PDF format, select "CQ Researcher" from the Libraries @ Camden County College database list and then search for plagiarism in the Quick Search box.

<http://www.camdencc.edu/library/Databases/databases.htm>

Cyberplagiarism Detection and Prevention

In addition to detection and prevention strategies, this Penn State resource offers links to current news articles about plagiarism and a free quiz that can be downloaded for classroom use.

<http://tlt.its.psu.edu/suggestions/cyberplag/index.html>

Deterring and Detecting Plagiarism

This nicely formatted guide developed at Iowa State University offers numerous suggestions for both faculty and student use.

<http://www.lib.iastate.edu/commons/resources/facultyguides/plagiarism/deter.html>

Take advantage of our NoodleBib program to simplify the process of citing sources in MLA or APA format. Access NoodleBib at:

<http://0-www.noodletools.com.iii.camden.lib.nj.us/login.php>

Plagiarism

From the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, this web site is divided into sections covering Published Articles, Copyright & Intellectual Freedom, "For Instructors," "For Students," Plagiarism Case Studies, Plagiarism Detection Tools, and more.

<http://www.web-miner.com/plagiarism>

Plagiarism & Academic Integrity at Rutgers University

This engaging interactive site from Rutgers University's Scholarly Research Communication Center is a good starting point for a discussion about plagiarism. The examples refer to resources available at Rutgers but the concepts can be transferred to CCC.

<http://www.scc.rutgers.edu/douglass/sal/plagiarism/intro.html>

Plagiarism: What It Is and How to Recognize and Avoid It

A brief tutorial developed by Writing Tutorial Services of Indiana University that includes examples of proper paraphrasing.

<http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml>

Plagiarism and Cyber-Plagiarism: A Guide to Selected Resources on the Web

The Association of College & Research Libraries has put together this extensive annotated list of Internet resources on plagiarism. An excellent resource!

<http://www.ala.org/ala/acrl/acrlpubs/crlnews/backissues2003/june4/plagiarismcyberplagiarism.htm>

Turnitin.com Research Resources

A well-known vendor of plagiarism detection software provides subscribers and non-subscribers with this useful collection of resources. Highly recommended!

http://www.plagiarism.org/research_site/e_home.html

For Educators:

- Suggestions for integrating plagiarism education into lesson plans
- Tips for creating assignments that discourage plagiarism
- Information on the causes of plagiarism
- Help with identifying types of plagiarism, including Internet-based plagiarism
- Printable handouts for students

For Students:

- Plagiarism defined
- Tips on how to avoid plagiarism
- Guidelines for proper citation
- Suggestions for developing good research and writing skills
- Answers to frequently asked questions
- Definitions of research-related terms

You Note It, You Quote It!

An animated approach to teaching plagiarism prevention from Acadia University in Canada.

<http://library.acadiau.ca/tutorials/plagiarism/>

Use Web Feet To Find More Plagiarism Resources

Keyword Type the Word or Phrase you want, then click the S [plagiarism and web feet] <input type="button" value="Search"/>
--

Go to CamCat, the online catalog. Using the Keyword search, enter the phrase plagiarism and web feet.

Created by E-Library Staff, Rohrer E-Library 8/06

Be Sure to Visit the Libraries @ Camden County College Web Site at:
<http://library.camdencc.edu>